Overview: what does it do This song Great difficulty: Advanced Genre: Metal Guitar TAB: Available here Fligh of the tab Chitarra Bumblebee Although it has been written by the classical composer Nikolai Rimsky-Korsakov, "Flight of the Bumblebee" has since become a preferred vehicle for guitarists to demonstrate their mettle as the fastest and worst player around. The song was used in 2008 by virtuoso, the Brazilian speeder Tiago Della Vega to set the Guinness record for the fastest guitarist in life. Vega performed the piece in a wide time range, beginning with a relatively slow speed and working its way up to 320 beats per minute, all while it seems to break just a sweat. It may not be the most musical thing in the world, but from a purely technical point of view Vega is surprising. That's an idea. Flight of the Bumble Bee by Nikolai Rimsky-Korsakov (1844-1908) "Bumblebee's Light" is an orchestral interlude written by Nikolai Rimsky-Korsakov for his work The story of Zar Saltan, composed in 1899-1900. The piece closes Act III, Tableau 1, during which the Swan-Bird magic changes Prince Gvidon Saltanovich (the son of the tsar) in a insect so that he can fly away to visit his father (who does not know he is alive). Although in the opera Swan-Bird sings during the first part of the "Flight", his vocal line is melodically not involved and easily omitted; This feature, combined with the fact that the number decisively closes the scene, made it easy to extract as possible an orchestral concert. It was romantic. 80 measures. 2/4 signature of time. 5 pages. Easy.
