By Liz Jacobs Mozilla Firefox is a Web browser similar to Internet Explorer or Google Chrome. The browser is a part of the Mozilla Application Suite. Firefox makes downloading movies simple because once you download, a window pops up that lets you immediately access the download. Downloading a movie in Firefox is very similar to downloading a movie in any other browser. However, the download window looks different because Firefox has it's own unique browser interface. Go to a site like Netflix, Movie Downloads, #1 Online Movie Downloads, Joost or Hulu. (See Resources and References). Sign up for the site. Some sites offer a 30-day free trial. Some sites listed are completely free. Select the category "Films." Click on the film genre you want to see such as comedy, drama or horror. Click the particular film you're interested in. Click "Download." Some sites, such as Hulu, don't include a download button. Their movies stream over the net. To download them, go to a site like KeepVid, Video Downloader or Vidimonkey. Copy the URL of the movie you'd like to download. Put the URL in the box on KeepVid, Video Downloader or Vidmonkey. Click "Submit." and your movie will begin downloading to your computer. Click on the file from the download window. Click "Open." Your movie will begin playing. By Contributor Updated July 21, 2017 MP3 Rocket is one of several music/video downloading services that takes advantage of the Gnutella Network, which allows users to share their files with others via the Internet. Similar to LimeWire, the program is very easy to use and gives you unlimited free access to millions of music and video files. Download and install the software from the MP3 Rocket website, but be careful. The basic version of the program is free, but you can pay up to $34 for a "pro" version if you want more than the basic ability to download and share files.Choose the type of file you'd like to download by clicking on one of the icons in the left panel or select "All Types." Enter the file name of the file you want to find in the box in the left panel, and click on "search" or select one of the categories from the toolbar across the top, which will give you access to the more popular music files.Select the genre of music you want from the list in the left panel and names of artists and songs will appear in the right panel.Double click on the artist and song you want and the software will begin searching the network for all files containing that information. They are then displayed as a list in the right panel.Click on the version you want to download and the program will download it to your computer. Your download time may be affected by the connection of the computer hosting the file. If you have the following connections it may take a while to download: Dialup (56k) 8 m 38 s, ISDN (128k) 3 m 46 s, DSL (512k) 56 s, Cable (1024k) 28 s, T1 (1484k) 19 s. Do not click on "Continue" on the MP3 Rocket home page if you want the free version of the software. Clicking on "Continue" brings you to a page to sign up for the Pro version, which can cost you up to $35. To get the free version, click on the word "download" at the bottom of the page. Beware of copyrighted or licensed files that may be available on the network. Since it's a file-sharing service, there may be many of these listed. Downloading them without paying for them is illegal. Check the MP3 Rocket website for tips on how to recognize these files. Radio is making a huge comeback through podcasts. Now you can find podcasts just about anything and all you have to do is subscribe and download. But what should film lovers be listening to on their commute or even at work? These are 10 awesome podcasts out there for every type of film lover. There is a podcast for you whether you're more into critically acclaimed films, or you love "so bad it's good" movies, or you love reading unmade scripts online. Every movie lover should try these ten podcasts at least once. 1. "How Did This Get Made?" Source: Earwolf If you love watching terrible movies or just hearing them get torn apart by people who love them, then this podcast is for you. The League's Paul Sheer and Jason Mantzoukas, and Grace and Frankie's June Diane-Raphael are usually joined by a guest to talk about a bad movie and its ridiculous plot holes, acting, lines, and more. Don't assume that this is fueled by haters. Many times the hosts actually come out enjoying and recommending the movies they review. At the end of each episode they also have a section called "second opinion" where they read five star reviews of each movie. Of course sometimes the hosts indeed find out how some of these movies get made through interviews with people who worked on the films themselves. It's truly an eye opener at the chaos that can ensue on set of a bad movie. 2. "The Blacklist" Source: The WolfPop If you're a fan of reading scripts especially, then this is right up your alley. This podcast takes scripts that haven't been made yet and get stars to sit down and do a table read of it. Host and former development executive, Franklin Leonard loves to refer to the episodes as "ear movies" and breaks up each script into four parts. The show switches the genres up so one month you might be deep into a drama while the next might be listening to a comedy. Many of the fans are able to vote which scripts they will do next. There also tends to be bonus episodes with an interview with the script writer. 3. "I Was There Too" Source: WolfPop Ever wondered what it would have been like to be on the set of The Exorcist? Or one of the passengers in Speed? Well this podcast has Matt Gourley interview actors who were in classic movies and television scenes who tell their stories seeing all the magic happen. This is a fun way to get an inside look into the industry from the extras or supporting roles point of view. 4. "Maltin On Movies" Source: WolfPop You know Leonard Maltin from his annual movie guides that rate films so you know what you're getting before hitting the theater. Now he has a podcast with Grace and Frankie's Baron Vaughn to talk about the film critic's favorite movies and some films you probably over looked. 5. "You Must Remember This" Source: American Public Media If you love looking into the history of Hollywood, then this podcast will let you nerd out. Founder of Cinematical.com and former film critic Karina Longworth hosts the show and dives into Hollywood's first century. Longworth gets to the bottom of conflicting reports, mythology, and institutionalized spin to figure out what exactly was going on back then. 6. "The Flop House" Source: The Flop House Another option for people who love bad movies is this podcast. Hosts Elliott Kalan, Dan McCoy, and Stuart Wellington watch movies that were either commercial flops or considered flops by critics. The episodes will make you laugh as the three dive into these crazy movies and what makes them so bad. 7. "The Treatment" Source: KCRW Host Elvis Mitchell who knows so much about films has deep interviews with people who work in entertainment, art, and pop culture. He's gotten people that are on top of their game like Wes Anderson, Broad City's Abbi Jacobson and Ilana Glazer, Nick Kroll, and more. 8. "Marvel Movie News from Marvel Fans" Source: Schmoes Know Everywhere you turn you are hearing about new rumors about upcoming Marvel movies. So where can you just get it all in one place? This podcast! Every Thursday hosts Matt Key, Matt Cook and Meredith Placko come together to discuss the latest Marvel movie news. They tell you what's real and what's just a rumor and more. 9. "The Dissolve" Source: The Dissolve This podcast looks into recent movie releases and use them to have table discussions about cinema. The hosts are made up from The Dissolve's staff and they talk about tropes like Manic Pixie Dream Girl, box office trends, and the staff often play entertaining games on air. 10. "Slate's Spoiler Specials" Source: Slate's Spoiler Specials Slate dives into new movies and their plots without holding back for spoilers. If you've just seen a movie and dying to find someone who has too in order to talk about it, then you definitely will want to download their episodes. It will open your eyes to somethings you may have missed and more. Check out Entertainment Cheat Sheet on Facebook! More from Cheat Sheet: descendants 3 full movie download mp3 free
