Soon, we may see chip-enabled e-passport. The honourable external affairs minister of India has said that the government is working on this. India Security Press in Nashik is working on it. Latest news update: To give hassle-free service to the passport holders in India, the Passport Seva Kendras have started a passport renewal reminder service. Two SMSs are being sent to the concerned passport holders - one before 9 months and another before 7 months of the date of expiry of their passport. A passport is an essential travel document for those who are travelling abroad. Indeed, it might be for education, pilgrimage, tourism, business purposes, medical attendance, or family visits. During the past few years, the growing economy and globalization have led to an increased demand for passport and related services. However, to meet this demand, the Ministry of External Affairs (MEA) launched the Passport Seva Project in May 2010.
